(KAT) -- just to name a few. Ryan is a graduate of University of Maryland with a degree in Voice and English. Many thanks to Doe, Craig, Josh, Thalia, and Megan for all their hard work. Special thanks to the Rebels, and his friends and family. As always, this is for Mom, Dad and Kyle for all their love and support.

Katie McManus (Little Becky Two Shoes) is back at KAT for a second time this year (she appeared as Sarraghina in Nine earlier this year). Before joining the rebel forces of the P-town Poo'er, she played the rather modest, less certifiable Baker's Wife in LTA's summer show, Into the Woods. Previous roles include Amy in Company (Foundry); Maureen/Queenie in Honk (RCP); Hattie in Kiss Me, Kate (TAP); and Ginger in The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas (TAP). Katie wishes to thank the Poo'er for the endless (and immature) laugh riots at rehearsals; and a special thank you to the Fabulous JPL: "You are the Ron to my Sheila...well, close enough."

Duane Monahan (Robby the Stockfish, Jacob Rosenbloom, UGC Exec) returns to the KAT stage for a fourth production. He played Cliff in Cabaret and was in the ensembles of The Rocky Horror Show and Kiss of the Spider Woman. Duane has also directed KAT's productions of Nine and Closer Than Ever. This fall marks Duane's 20th year of community theater in the Washington area. He has appeared in over 25 musical theater productions and been a director and choreographer for another 10. As always, a huge thanks to Jon, Vienne, my parents and the Block family for their constant support and encouragement.

Michael Nansel (Officer Lockstock) won the 2003 WATCH Award for Best Lead Actor in a Musical (Fred Graham/Kiss Me Kate/TAP) and Best Featured Actor in a Musical (Juan Peron/Evita/MP). The Washington Post said, "Nansel displays an operatically soaring voice that is mesmerizing." He's performed with WNO (Bartender/Sophie's Choice), AMS (Beast/Beauty and the Beast) and Wolf Trap Opera (Sweeney Todd). Last summer he was in Signature Theatre's Assassins, and was in KAT's version earlier this year. This is his third show with KAT and his 8th show with Craig as his director. Hope you have change for intermission, we'll be watching. Wuv U Ton ;-)

Sam Nystrom (McQueen) is very excited to perform in a KAT production after having been in the audience for the past few shows. He has previously appeared in Ragtime and Fiddler on the Roof with TAP, The Who's Tommy and The Mystery of Edwin Drood with LTA, and Company with Foundry Players. He is fortunate to be able to work with so many talented people on this show. While not onstage, Sam works in the marketing department of Washington National Opera.

Craig Pettinati (Director) Founder and artistic director of Kensington Arts Theatre, Craig Pettinati is proud to present KAT's 5th season opener, Urinetown, to the community. Credits include three Ruby Griffith Award winning shows: Godspell, Sweeney Todd and Side Show, and he recently received the 2005 WATCH Award for Best Direction of a Musical for KAT's Kiss of the Spider Woman. Mr. Pettinati would like to thank the cast and crew for their tireless efforts in making this a rewarding experience and you, the audience, for sharing your time with KAT. Enjoy.

Erica Suzanne Reinsch (Soupy Sue / Cladwell's Secretary) is thrilled to be making her KAT debut in Urinetown! Originally from Colorado, where she grew
